Terms and Conditions.

Information for resellers of myfloatingworld lighting products.

For promotional purposes, our images can be provided to you in two forms. As a low-resolution pdf image or on a cd which has both low resolution and high-resolution images. High-resolution images are suitable for incorporating into professional reproduction products. Low-resolution images are ideal for general use such as emails. Please contact us if you require a CD.

Our intention in providing you with images in these formats is to both enable you to select the products you wish to purchase from us, and also to allow you to positively promote myfloatingworldwholesale products. We respectfully request that you follow these guidelines,

1. Please ensure that the designer is credited wherever the designer's name is listed in conjunction to a product.
2. Please quote myfloatingworld contact details.
3. Please send us a copy of any advert or publication for our records.
4. For more information about how to use images please do not hesitate to contact us: design@myfloatingworld.com
5. Please ensure that your prices are up-to-date by checking with us, as prices can change from time to time.
